Report Cards

All of the students have done a lot of great work this past semester. Report cards will be sent home this Friday, January 14 in order for you to see how they have done over the past five months!

Read-a-thon

Read-a-thon logs will be due this Friday, January 14. Please make sure that you have logged and signed off on your student's reading log and that the logs are sent in that morning.

Silver Chair

In Literature class we are beginning The Silver Chair by C.S. Lewis. Through the story we will be furthering our understanding of imagery and seeing the message of the gospel through stories. We will also learn how our actions can effect those around us, how to take responsibility for our actions, and what grace and forgiveness look like.

Happy Epiphany!

Welcome back! We have successfully made it to the halfway point of the school year. The students have come so far, but we still have farther to go. In History we will be continuing learning about Medieval Europe and begin moving into the Renaissance. As we do so, we will continue to learn about the kings and queens of England. The students have enjoyed learning the stories about each monarch and seeing character patterns as we travel down the tree.

In writing we are moving from learning about Fables to a more broad examination of Narratives. There are many different methods to tell many different kinds of stories, and we will be examining and trying out hand at several of these methods.

I'm sure this next semester will be a lot of fun! Please ask your students about what they are learning. Retelling something they have learned leads to mastery of it.
